My dear Madam,

I have much pleasure in again sending contributions to the usual amount, for the Burying Bazaar, and I am sure it is needless to say I trust that you may like to see the receipt of the of what I cannot doubt is the first wish of your heart, the reformation of the entire system of Slavery — To have con-tributed my humble efforts in this very Christian. — cause, has given me much grati-fication, and as long as the great giver of all good purchases to me the blessing with which I am at present surrounded, I shall hope still to enjoy this gratification, while the necessity for exertion exists.

I have to acknowledge the receipt of a note from you received some months back, which I do reply Sincerely —

I have your kind letter received from you, you mentioned a friendly wish to comply with my desire to possess autographs of those who had distinguished themselves in the Anti-Slavery movement you forwarded to me Mr Garrison's Longfellow Folios, Channing & another or two - If you could kindly add to these the autographs of Mr. Adell Phillips, Thos Wright, Frederick Douglass, and any others that you would deem valuable, I should be very much obliged to you - for gratifying me; hoping however that you will not allow me to impose any additional trouble upon you - I should much like Mrs. Follen's also - The Rev. Mr. and Rev. Mr. Clarkson - I have - My dear Madam, I can now only express the very sincere respect I feel for you, and an earnest hope that you may long be spared to enjoy health and happiness rest. I do not add, for to an ardent and generous mind like yours while good is to be done by exertion, rest would but seem negligent — My Mother who is now nearly eighty years of age and whose sight has quite left her for reading, has been amusing herself with knitting a dozen pair of garters, for your Bazaar, and I know you will not despise such a little offering as it is the only kind of work which she can now accomplish.

I have had to do little with to allow me to charge the at 4 per pr Sarah Cogan deemed too high a price, but told her she was too modest, and I hope you will agree with me —

Writing in this way I hope I could almost imagine I was penning a letter to an old friend, but when persons feel interested in promoting a good cause, there seems to exist a sympathy, which no distance, or difference in the power of promoting its success, can show — but the reverse can — Wm.

My sisters and my mother best and respectful regards believe me very dear Madam Very faithfully yours
Sarah Logan

My sister Caroline has ex-cuted all the pencil drawing I thought that perhaps some those of T. Clarkson's residence would not be thought worth -each at 5 ^s each, as many might like to possess a Drawing of it.
